THREE DAY RIGHT TO CANCEL

You, the buyer, have the right to cancel this contract within three business days. You may cancel by e-mailing, faxing or delivering a written notice to the contractor at the contractor's place of business by midnight of the third business day after you received a signed and dated copy of the contract that includes this notice. Include your name, your address and the date you received the signed copy of the contract and this notice.

If you cancel, the contractor must return to you anything you paid within 10 days of receiving the notice of cancellation. For your part, you must make available to the contractor at your residence, in substantially as good condition as you received it, any goods delivered to you under this contract or sale. Or, you may ask, if you wish, comply with the contractors instructions on how to return the goods at the contractors expense and risk. If you do make the goods available to the contractor and the contractor does not pick them up within 20 days of the date or your notice of cancellation, you may keep them without any further obligation. If you fail to make the goods available to the contractor or if you agree to return the goods to the contractor and fail to do so, then you remain liable for performance of all obligations under the contract.

_____, Buyer hereby acknowledge that on 2/13/24 Date I was provided this document entitled "Three-Day Right to Cancel."  (check box) if Buyer agrees to waive this provision based on an accelerated installation time per the direction of the Buyer.

CALIFORNIA MECHANICS LIEN LAW

Notice: Under the Mechanics Lien Law (California Code of Civil Procedure, Section 1181 et seq) any contractor, subcontractor, laborer, supplier, or other person who helps improve your property but is not paid for his work or supplies, has a right to enforce a claim against your property. This means that, after a court hearing, your property could be sold by a court officer and the proceeds of the sale used to satisfy the indebtedness.

In the event either party becomes involved in litigation, arbitration or any other alternate dispute resolution arising out of or relating to this contract of the performance of it, the court or tribunal in such arbitration or litigation shall award reasonable fees and costs incurred to the prevailing party including attorneys fees, expert witness fees, court costs and other costs arising out of or relating to resolution of the dispute.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand all terms and conditions. You are entitled to a completely filled in copy of this agreement, signed by both you and All Counties Fence & Supply, before any work may be started.

If this proposal is acceptable, please sign both pages of proposal where noted and fax back to All Counties Fence & Supply at (951) 780-8717. Upon receipt, the estimator will attach the appropriate documentation to the signed proposal and submit the installation packet to our Operations Manager to be assigned an installation date. Our office will then contact you with the installation date.
