FROM: Mark P. Kling, Interim Chief of Police

Request City Council to Approve a Travel and Training Request for Lieutenant Dean Hardin to attend Senior Management Institute for Police (SMIP) of the Police Executive Research Forum (PERF) in the Estimated Amount of $10,405.60, Budgeted in the Proposed Fiscal Year 2018/19 Budget.

BACKGROUND:

On July 28, 2015, the City Council adopted Resolution No. 6789 establishing a policy that requires City Council approval of all out-of-state travel and training requests for City staff where the total costs exceed $3,000. To comply with this policy, staff requests the City Council's approval for Lieutenant Dean Hardin to attend the SMIP program in Boston, Massachusetts on July 8 - July 26, 2018.

The SMIP (Senior Management Institute for Police), is a program of the Police Executive Research Forum which was founded in 1976 as a nonprofit organization. The Police Executive Research Forum (PERF) is a policy and research organization and a provider of management services, and executive-level education to support law enforcement agencies. PERF provides the type of training that helps to improve the delivery of police services through the exercise of strong National leadership; public debate of police and criminal justice issues; and research and policy development.

ANALYSIS/DISCUSSION:

The SMIP (Senior Management Institute for Police) program is one of the Nation's top law enforcement management courses and is highly desired and recommended under the Chief's development and succession planning of Executive Command Staff members.

The SMIP provides senior police executives with intensive training in the latest management concepts and practices used in business and government, as well as discussions of the most challenging issues facing law enforcement executives today. The SMIP is a demanding three-week course, and the faculty for the course includes professors from top universities, such as Harvard's School of Law, successful law enforcement chief executives from across the nation, and subject matter experts from the private sector. It is designed for mid-to upper-level police executives who ultimately will lead police agencies. SMIP's curriculum addresses the issues that demand the attention of today's forward-thinking law enforcements leaders and their organizations.

Classes are held at Boston University, where participants learn and reside in the university's classrooms and residence hall. Tuition for the SMIP session includes instruction, books, materials, program activities and events, lodging and meals for the duration of the program. Tuition does not include travel expenses (airfare and rental car).

Upon graduation SMIP participants will have a clear understanding of general management theory, policy development, planning processes, and organizational behavior. Topics such as diversity, political management, organizational strategy, performance management, organizational change, leadership, managerial problem-solving, career planning, negotiation, process analysis, media relations, and new policing strategies and innovations are discussed and trained on.
